OHIOANS START UNIT AT COLDWATER

ELECT A. H. BERNARD CHARTER PRESIDENT OF NEW CHAPTER

The recently organized Midwestern Ohio chapter elected officers and adopted a constitution February 20 in Coldwater, O.

Charter officers are: President, A. H. Bernard, '02; vice president, Ernest J. Hoying, '23; secretary, Urban Rauh, '21, and treasurer, J. H. Boeke, '98. Elected to the executive board were the Rev. Karl Wuest, C.P.P.S., '31, and the Rev. Otto Mueller, C.P.P.S., '13. One other member, the Rev. Edwin Murphy, C.P.P.S., J.C.D., '30 was appointed to the board by the Rev. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., S.T.D., '20, president of the College.

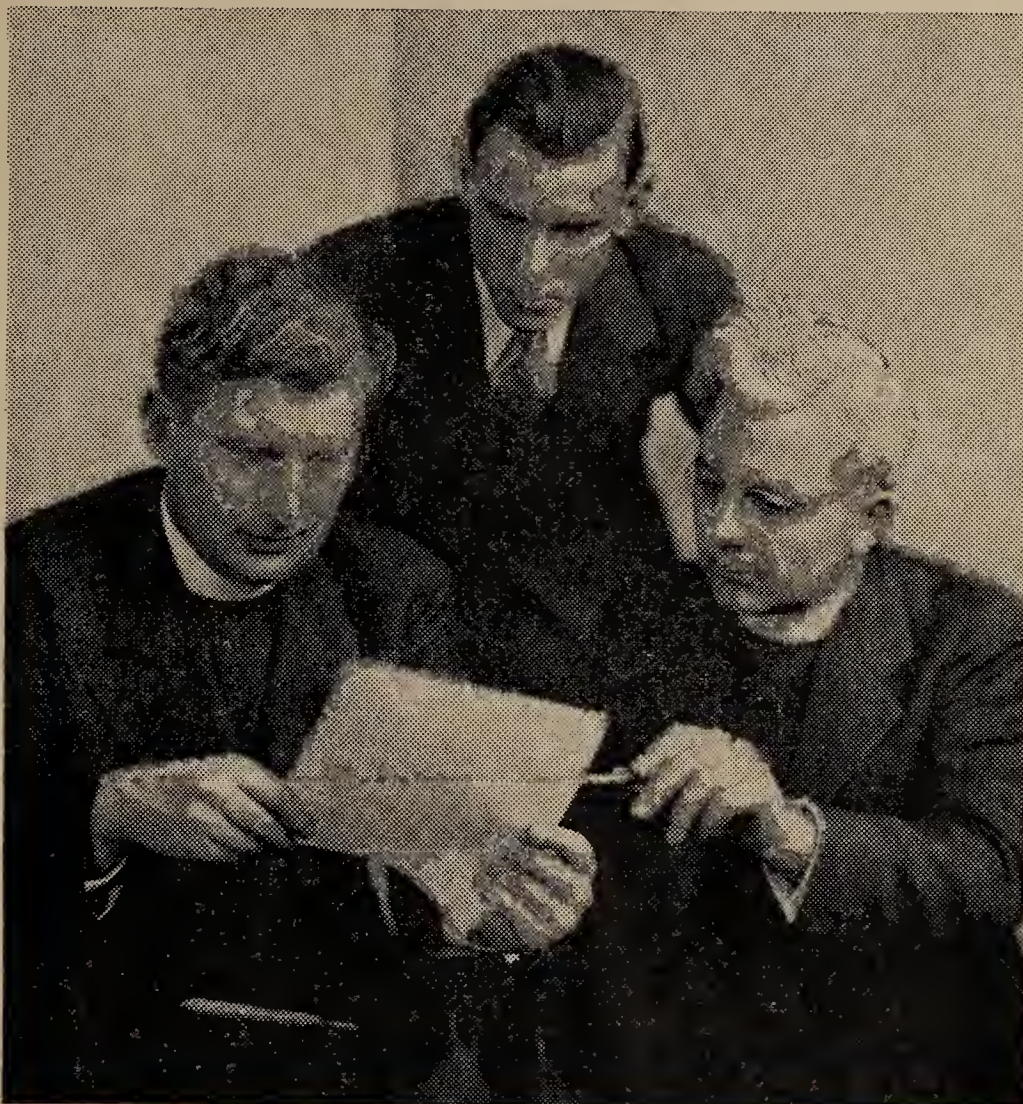

Upon invitation of Father Dirksen the chapter was organized December 8, 1938, in Coldwater. Temporary officers were elected at that time. Speakers at the meeting were Father Dirksen, the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., M.A., '22, vice president of the College, and the Rev. Joseph B. Kenkel, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., '13, professor at the College.

A get-together will be held in a few weeks to arrange transportation to the College for Alumni Day. The next regular meeting will be called some time between May 15 and June 10. According to the constitution, three meetings will be held each year. One will be called at the opening of football season; another, for a banquet and elections, in February; the third meeting will be held shortly after Homecoming.

RUNS AD AGENCY

Martin E. Greven, '30-'31, is an executive now with swivel chair and everything. He is the head of Advertising Services in Fort Wayne.

THEY START THE BALL ROLLIN'

Checking over articles for the first issue of CONTACT is the Very Rev. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., '20, president of St. Joseph's, while co-editors Edward Fischer, '34, former newspaperman, and the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., '18, point out possibilities.

John Wolf, Indianapolis, Tells Beefsteak Yarn

"I'll never forget the days when Stan Beckman caught and Joe Lill pitched," said John Wolf, '15, while talking over old times with a bunch of St. Joe men in a room at the Antlers Hotel in Indianapolis just before the St. Joe-Butler game.

"Joe Lill had a powerful arm. His speed was uncanny. Stan Beckman was a good catcher. He had to be or he never could have held Joe. But just before every game Beckman used to go back to the nuns' kitchen and get a beefsteak. He'd put that inside his glove to take the sizzle out of the hot ones."

Lill the pitcher is now Dr. Joseph Lill, '09-'13, well-known Fort Wayne surgeon, and Stanley Beckman, '10-'15, when last heard of, was a jeweler and radio dealer in Ottawa, Ohio.

John Wolf is connected with A. J. Wichman, Incorporated, Indianapolis. Incidentally, there is one other thing Mr. Wolf will never forget — the old smoking rule. He recited it verbatim that night in the Antlers Hotel.

ST. JOE MEN TO RECEIVE NEWSPAPER

FATHER RAPP URGES FORMER STUDENTS TO COOPERATE

CONTACT, monthly publication for the Alumni of St. Joseph's College, makes its debut with this issue.

The paper will go to press the first of every month from October to June inclusive. Editors are the Rev. Sylvester Ley, C.P.P.S., '17, professor of English at the College, and Edward Fischer, '34, former newspaperman who has been appointed to direct college publicity, teach, and handle alumni work.

The name CONTACT was chosen because the purpose of the publication is to bring fellow Alumni closer together and to strengthen the bond between them and the College. It is one of the first steps toward a greater Alumni Association.

"A publication for the Alumni is an excellent idea," said the Rev. Ildephonse Rapp, C.P.P.S., '00, president of the Alumni Association. "Its success, of course, will depend upon the cooperation of the Alumni."

NAZIS DRIVE THREE ALUMNI FROM AUSTRIA

In an abandoned hospital at Sion-Valais, Switzerland, are William McKune, Lawrence Mossing and Joseph Allgeier, of the class of '34, and James Scott, '35. They had been studying for the priesthood at the Canisianum in Innsbruck, Austria, until the Nazis took over the place. Now they are cramming Theology in an operating room and plugging Sacred Scripture in a maternity ward.

John Dalton, '34, is working for Westinghouse in Mansfield, Ohio.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Dear Alumni:

The knowledge that St. Joseph's College planned to publish an Alumni Bulletin caused me genuine pleasure. In the name of the Board of Trustees of the College I heartily endorse such a project, and congratulate those who are, in the first instance, responsible for it.

I am confident that you, the alumni of St. Joseph's, will have a deep welcome for this new publication. Loyal and devoted as you have always been to your alma mater, you will be happy to learn of current happenings at Collegeville, to be told what your comrades of yesterday upon St. Joseph's campus are accomplishing in their respective fields of endeavor, to discover the College's greatest needs, and what it is that you can do specifically to obviate them. On the other hand, the authorities at St. Joseph's, mindful of how stimulating is the support of former students, will gladly shape this new link in the chain that binds the College to its loyal sons.

■ We who have watched the College grow during the past few years, fully aware of the sacrifices that that expansion has demanded, will look upon this latest effort in the field of journalism as heralding an even greater and more prosperous St. Joseph's. That such may be the case is our earnest wish.

Cordially yours,

Joseph M. Marling, C.P.P.S.,
Provincial.

HERE WE ARE!

At last the Faculty of St. Joseph's sends to the Alumni the first issue of the bulletin so long planned. Long a desideratum, such an organ has become in recent years a real need because of the growth of the Alumni body and because former students of St. Joseph's are now so widely scattered.

CONTACT is meant to serve the Alumni; to keep them informed of the development and progress of the College, and to acquaint them with the activities of their fellow Alumni, thereby strengthening the bonds which bind them together and to their Alma Mater.

St. Joseph's and its Alumni are knit together by a strong tie of mutual pride. The College is justly proud of its former students and their achievements. St. Joe men, whether in the priesthood, in the professions, and most of all, in the capacity of exemplary Catholic citizens have everywhere contributed to good Christian citizenship. These achievements should become better known so that all may know the reason for St. Joseph's pride in its students.

It is one of the objectives of the bulletin to do this. It will as well acquaint the Alumni with the progress of the College and thereby stimulate them in their well-founded pride in St. Joseph's. For years the College has pursued its ideals in an unobtrusive way; its accomplishments have been too little heralded.

Another bond which binds St. Joe men together and draws them to their Alma Mater is that esteem and regard which finds its expression in mutual helpfulness. The Fathers of the Precious Blood at St. Joseph's have ever extended their hand in help to St. Joe men, who no less have always been ready to return aid to their Alma Mater. Through the medium of this bulletin there should result a better acquaintance among the Alumni and increased opportunities for this mutual helpfulness among them.

With the thought that CONTACT may be of real service to the Alumni, the Faculty of St. Joseph's gives it to St. Joe men.

Rev. Aloys H. Dirksen, C.P.P.S.,
President

COOPERATION!

United we do not stand; we progress. A united front through which a set goal will be reached is based upon the combination of two qualities — leadership and cooperation.

This new enterprise of St. Joseph's College, the alumni bulletin which we have appropriately named CONTACT, possesses the first of these essentials in an eminent degree. The Very Reverend Joseph M. Marling, Provincial of the Society of the Precious Blood, heartily endorses it. As President of St. Joseph's, the Very Reverend Aloys Dirksen, has been planning for it ever since he accepted his office several months ago. To a man the faculty have endorsed the measure and encouraged its early realization since it was proposed to them. An efficient editor, Mr. Edward Fischer, has been appointed to supervise the publication. He comes to the college well trained and with sufficient experience on two metropolitan newspapers to do the work well.

That the quality of cooperation will be equally present is reasonably assured. The alumni of St. Joseph's through gratitude alone would support any justifiable undertaking of their alma mater. They look back to the training received under her guidance lovingly, appreciatively. They know too that a publication prepared specifically for them is a token of respect for them by the school which is proud to call them her sons.

Concretely, leadership will give and request suggestions. It will call for information about the alumni so that the purpose of this bulletin — to further the interests of St. Joseph's and of her alumni — may be fulfilled.

Cooperation will require a prompt and complete response, particularly in this first instance to the questionnaire which is enclosed with the first issue of CONTACT.

Both will help immeasurably in making the next and all future issues of the paper all that we so enthusiastically desire — a perfect bond between St. Joseph's and her gallant, Christian sons.

Sylvester H. Ley, C.P.P.S.

Urban Reichlin, '33, will be ordained the latter part of March at Our Lady of the Lake Seminary in Cleveland.

THE ROUNDUP

By

Coach Joe Dienhart

Basketball season closed last week-end for both varsity and high school teams here at St. Joe.

The college team didn't look as bad on the floor as its record looks on paper. The high school kids won every game on their schedule. They tasted defeat for the first time when they lost 31-30 in the Indiana Catholic Tournament to St. Mary's of Michigan City, a team they had defeated twice during the season.

But let's talk about the varsity for a little while. The outlook for next season is anything but dreary. Captain Barney Badke, center, is the only man on the squad that we'll lose through graduation. Three of this year's first string, Melloh, Gutgsell and Dougherty, are Freshmen. And almost that entire smooth-playing high school outfit will be in college next Fall.

The lack of a big man was our greatest handicap on the varsity. Of course, Michalewicz or Badke couldn't get a job with Singer's Midgets, but when I say big I mean at least six feet, four; or six, five. We needed a man who could get the ball off the banking board with such consistency that around opponents he would be as welcome as a fly in the soup.

Here's how the varsity stands, according to the books:

St. Joe	34	Valparaiso University	30
"	"	48 Concordia College	22
"	"	27 Central Normal	33
"	"	40 St. Mary's (Winona)	39
"	"	28 Ball State	56
"	"	36 St. Xavier (Cincinnati)	41
"	"	27 Anderson	30
"	"	33 St. Xavier	45
"	"	47 Valparaiso	31
"	"	55 St. Norbert's	48
"	"	57 George Williams	21
"	"	34 Concordia	24
"	"	29 Butler University	41
"	"	40 Indiana State	44
"	"	41 DeSales (Toledo)	69
"	"	37 George Williams	39

The high school kids played a fast-breaking type of basketball. Carl Reichert, six-foot, three-inch center, set up a wonderful record for ball handling and sportsmanship. He fouled his opponent only eight times all season. He went ten games without committing a foul. Captain Meagher, Pat Ormsby and George Kochis formed a smart combination. The kids really like to play basketball; that's the reason for their success.

Here's their record:

St. Joe	29	Monon	17
"	"	34 Concordia	14
"	"	27 St. Mary's (Michigan City)	19
"	"	25 Decatur Catholic	21
"	"	43 St. Paul (Marion)	12
"	"	23 St. Mary's (Michigan City)	17
"	"	42 Calvert High (Tiffin, O.)	16

ON THE CAMPUS

A roundup of campus news will be presented in this column each month. For more complete and better coverage, read Stuff, bi-monthly student publication. It costs only a dollar a year. Lots of water will flow down the old Iroquois River before you find a better buy for your money.

Father Ildephonse Rapp is back! For the past four and a half years he has been spiritual director at the Motherhouse of the School Sisters of Notre Dame at Milwaukee, Wis. Before he took over this position, he had been a professor on the campus for thirty years. It's almost stating the obvious to say that he will teach public speaking and dramatics.

Speaking of dramatics, the C.L.S., in cooperation with the C.Y.O. of Rensselaer, produced "The Nut Farm" February 21 in the campus auditorium. Prof. Tonnor's daughter, Pauline, and three other Rensselaer girls took part in the production which was under the direction of Father Robert Koch, '28. The show went over like Halley's Comet.

The Rev. Joseph Sheeran, '32, joined the English department here on February 13. At the end of the first semester he received his Master of Arts degree at Catholic University, Washington, D. C.

The students are doing anything but starving. Statistics given out by the Rev. John Schon, M.S., '19, procurator at the college, show that in one meal the fellows can absorb 200 pounds of roast beef, three bushels of apples, thirty-five gallons of milk, three bushels of potatoes, eighty-five pies, 175 chickens and 125 pounds of frankfurters. In a week they can put away 195 pounds of butter and 400 pounds of sugar.

A 12-hour course in Physical Education was introduced at the opening of the second semester by Coach Joe Dienhart. The theory of athletic competition will be stressed. "It's the study of theory that makes it possible for a good football player to become a great basketball coach and for a good basketball player to become a great football coach," Mr. Dienhart explained.

Alumni Near Ordinations At St. Meinrad's

Seven St. Joseph's College Alumni will be ordained to the priesthood in the Spring at St. Meinrad's Seminary, St. Meinrad, Ind. They are: John Spalding, Victor Boardman, Bernard Glick, Thomas Heilman, Stanislaus Manoski, William Voors and Wilmer Riechel.

Third Theologians at the Seminary are Dominic Altieri, Alfred Horrigan, Charles Kelty, Julian Pank, William Pank, Clarence Pettit, Earl Rausch and Francis Ward, all of the class of '34.

Among the second Theologians are John Elder, William Hartlage, James Quinn, Charles Saffer, Edward Biven and Laurence Devine, of the class of '33.

In first Theology at St. Meinrad's are Timothy Doody, George Muresan, Frederick Schroeder, Bernard Shank, Albert VanNevel and Eugene Zimmerman, class of '36.

Daniel Peil and John Homco, both of '37, are in second Philosophy at St. Meinrad.

From the class of '38, Henry Ameling, Paul Miller and Henry Ward are in first Philosophy.

INDIANAPOLIS MEN PLAN NEW CHAPTER

Plans for starting an Alumni chapter in Indianapolis were outlined by the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., '22, vice president of the College, at a meeting of former students in the Antlers Hotel after the St. Joe-Butler game.

It was decided that Alumni within a radius of fifty miles of Indianapolis should be included in the chapter. John B. Wolf, '15, of 1817 North Delaware Street, Indianapolis, is making arrangements for an organization meeting.

Stan Manoski, '33 Wins Oratory Contest

The oratory contest sponsored annually by the St. Thomas Literary Society at St. Meinrad's Seminary was won this year by Stanislaus Manoski, '33. Other alumni in the contest were Alfred (Shad) Horrigan, '34, and John Spalding, '31. Dom Altieri, '34, was not eligible for the contest because he was president of the society.

James Thornbury, '35, is assistant credit manager at Sutcliffe's Sports Goods store in Louisville.

Calumet Group Elects Officers

FIFTY-EIGHT ALUMNI ATTEND ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BANQUET

Officers of the Calumet Chapter were elected following a banquet December 29 in the Lake Hotel in Gary. They are: President, Al McCoy, '21; secretary-treasurer, Henry Krieter, '16, and chaplain, the Rev. Carl Holsinger, '21.

Fifty-eight alumni were present at the banquet at which the Rev. Aloys Dirksen, college president, and Coach Joe Dienhart were guest speakers. Every year at Christmas the chapter is host to students living in the Calumet district.

The chapter was founded November 8, 1934, on this three-point plan: To bring a closer relation between the Alumni and students at the College; to enable former students now living in the Calumet area to continue friendships formed during their student days; and to advance the interest of St. Joseph's College.

First officers of the chapter were: President, John Tokarts, '13; vice-president, Jerome Dalton, '15; secretary-treasurer, John Jones, '03 and chaplain, the Rev. Edward Mungovan, '97.

Al McCoy, '21, was elected president in 1936 with the Rev. Isidore Stadtherr, '21, vice-president, John Jones, '03, secretary-treasurer and the Rev. Carl Holsinger, '21, chaplain.

FORMER STUDENT OF '16 STATIONED at SAN DIEGO

Joseph H. Seyfried, '12-'16, is Lieutenant-commander of the Marines at San Diego, Calif. In June he will become gunnery officer on the battleship New Mexico. His brother Wilfred Seyfried, who also attended St. Joe from '12 to '16, is now chief clerk of the Circuit Court in Indianapolis.

Father Grotenrath Leads Campaign On Campus

Three hundred and twenty-five students pledged themselves to aid in the campaign against indecent literature. The Rev. Thomas Grotenrath, M.A., '28, is director of the drive on the campus.

Fred Newton, '34, of Jefferson-town, Ky., was married February 18 at St. Francis of Assisi Church, Louisville.

The Rev. Cyril Lauer, '28, is chaplain at several CCC camps around Toledo.

HERE AND THERE

If you ever get around Ottawa, Ohio, look-up Tom McCrate, '34. He'll gladly give you a ticket free — he's a state patrolman now.

Henry Rager, '34, better known to the boys around the Raleigh Club as Hank, is living in Santa Monica, Calif. He is married, has a home, a car, a dog, and will get a law degree in June. He is the father of Henry Raymond.

Kenny Hurlow, '33, is manager of a chain store in Mansfield, O.

Ray Leonard, '33, is manager of the Holland stove company in Elwood, Ind. His pride and joy is Raymond Edward Junior.

Norbert Minick, '35, is up in New York writing a column for the Radio City News.

John Zink, '33, is working for Seagrams distilleries in Louisville.

The Rev. Lawrence Grotehouse, '31, former Conroy Oratory contest winner, is assistant pastor at St. Joseph's Church, in Mishawaka, Ind.

Courtney Bosler, '28-'30, is manager of the Madrid, popular recreational center in Louisville.

Frank J. Schloer, '95, is an accountant for the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Company, in Chicago.

It may be wedding bells in June for Lawrence Bloemer, '28-'31, employee of the Bloemer Food Sales Company in Louisville.

Anthony Bisig, '35, is an employee in Bisig's Dairy, Louisville.

Richard Palmer, '36, works in the office of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, Lima, O.

The Rev. James Stapleton, '29, remembered on the campus for his frequent renditions of "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Where The River Shannon Flows," is assistant at St. Matthew's church, South Bend.

Joseph Fontana, '34, has a position with the Louisville Water Company.

William Smith, '35, is an auditor in Bardstown, Ky.

Vandagriff Zooms Upward In World Of Kilocycles

GRADUATE OF '34
ON AIR DAILY
FROM FORT WAYNE

"Takes radio seriously..."

Those words were written beneath the cap-and-gowned picture of Carl Vandagriff in the June 1934 issue of The Collegian. Coincidentally, the same person who wrote them also punched-out this story almost five years later. Neither he nor Vandy realized back in 1934 that the phrase had a touch of prophecy in it.

Vandy still takes radio seriously. That's the reason he's moving toward the top so fast. When he haunted the loud speaker in the Raleigh Club, radio meant recreation; now it's his life work.

He joined Fort Wayne's WOWO in February, 1935, as assistant to the news commentator. The main part of his job was rewriting news stories.

Makes Debut

His airwave debut came on an early morning program in April, 1935. Muscles in the neck grew tense, perspiration popped-out on his forehead, and he doesn't know to this day just what he said.

When Westinghouse took over the stations in August, 1936, Carl was made regular announcer and news commentator on WGL. He became news commentator for WOWO, the senior unit and Indiana's most powerful broadcasting station, in November, 1936. Then in April, 1937, Vandy was named Continuity Supervisor, in charge of client relations, meanwhile continuing on special event radio programs.

Directs Publicity

Vandagriff became Publicity Director for WOWO-WGL in November, 1938. In addition to publicity duties he is heard via WOWO on "Dishpan Parade," 9:30 to 9:45 a.m., Central Standard Time, Monday through Friday; on "Hey! Mr. Motorist," traffic safety feature, 12:30 p.m., Monday, Tuesday and Thursday; and in "Name The Tune," 1 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Vandy learned that radio has its share of thrilling moments. Once he was rushed to a big lumberyard fire where he stood on a pile of refuse in the front yard of a slum home describing the advance of the flames across the street.

ANNOUNCER

Carl Vandagriff

The voice of Carl Vandagriff, '34, may be heard daily from WOWO, Fort Wayne. Vandy, one of Father Ildephonse's proteges, is making a name for himself in the radio world.

Another time, he and a partner were compelled to stand on a windy, wintry street corner for fifteen minutes and "make talk" because it was too cold to stop shoppers for interviews.

Vandagriff enjoys radio work. He's having more fun than a kid with a new red wagon. And above all he still takes the game seriously.

KENTUCKIANS TO ARRANGE TRANSPORTATION

The Louisville Chapter of the Alumni Association will meet Monday night, March 27, in the Madrid to arrange transportation to the Monogram formal and to Homecoming Day, it was decided at the February 20 meeting.

Officers of the Louisville Chapter are: President, James Heckman, '34; vice-president, Urban Kuhn, '35; secretary, James Thornbury, '35; and moderator, the Rev. Paul Russell, '27.

Don Foohey, '35, is majoring in Commerce at Loyola. As a side line he is tutoring in Latin and Greek.

Akron Has Three-Point Program

Akron Chapter's work is grouped under three heads, spiritual, material and social.

Deceased members of the chapter are enrolled in the Perpetual Mass Foundation of the Salvatorian Fathers. Akron Alumni receive Holy Communion in a body annually either in a church in Akron or at Brunnerdale Seminary.

According to Werner Fromm, '25, present secretary, the chapter's constitution calls for monthly meetings and the collection of moderate monthly dues so that some day the chapter will be able to present a fitting memorial to its Alma Mater.

Monthly meetings are usually held in one of the member's home. On special occasions a more formal meeting is held with a banquet. Brunnerdale Seminary is popular in the summer for "miniature alumni days" and ball games with the students.

The chapter was formed at a banquet September 10, 1930, at Spridler's Inn, Akron. The minutes of that meeting credit Gilbert Reymann, '25, and Raymond Dirrig, '25, with fathering the idea of the new organization. First officers were: President, Albert Kuntz, '22; treasurer, Norbert Roth, '22; secretary, the Rev. Herman Klockner, '25; assistant secretary, Paul Hummel, '25 and chaplain the Rev. Clement Boeke, '07.

Cook County Entertains Team

Visiting professors and the varsity were guests of the Cook County chapter at a buffet supper in the Hays Hotel after the George Williams game in Chicago.

B. B. Lear, '19, secretary of the chapter, was toastmaster during a brief program of talks. Carl A. Schmidt, '17, is president of the organization and Dr. W. J. Barth, '12, is vice-president.

Rev. Richard Connelly, '33 Nears Ordination Day

The Rev. Richard Connelly, '33, deacon at St. Vincent's Seminary, Latrobe, Pa., will be ordained March 4 in Columbus, O. Father Connelly's home is in Newark, O. He is the brother of the Rev. Harold Connelly, '32, faculty member at St. Charles Seminary, Columbus.

Fort Wayne Unit Names New Leaders

Chapter Gives Dinner At Catholic Center Before Concordia Game

The Fort Wayne chapter of the Alumni Association will meet shortly after Lent, according to an announcement made at the February 11 meeting in the Catholic Community Center by Edward Ernst, '13, newly-elected president of the chapter.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Henry Miller, '34; secretary, F. J. Kuentzel, '18, and treasurer, Henry Berghoff, '09.

Elections were held at a banquet before the St. Joe-Concordia game. Brief talks were given at the banquet by Monsignor Thomas M. Conroy, '96, Monsignor D. Lawrence Monahan, '05 and the Very Rev. Aloys Dirksen, '20, president of the college. After the game the alumni were hosts to the St. Joe varsity at a buffet luncheon.

Arrangements were in charge of Henry Hipskind, '11, and Louis Nagelsen, '09.

SIX GRADS AWAIT ORDINATION DAY AT SAINT MARY'S

With June will come ordination day for six St. Joe men at Mount St. Mary's, Norwood, Ohio. They are:

Urban Wurm, Virgil Reidlinger, James Dwyer, Leo Frey, Joseph Lenk and Louis Zenz.

Members of the class of '34 who will receive Subdiaconate in June at Mount St. Mary's are Stephen Cvaniga, Joseph Jacobs, Richard Hoschock, Dominic Pallone, Vernon Rosenthal and Joseph O'Leary.

In second Theology are Joseph Klinker, Edward Hession and John Downey, all of '35, and Vincent Herman, of '31.

James O'Grady, who was at the college in '34 and '35, and Victor Broering, who attended St. Joe from '32 to '34, are first Theologians at Mount St. Mary's.

ALUMNI PROVE LOYALTY AT GAME

Louis Nagelsen, '09, and Cletus Hipskind, '25, showed real spirit when they drove from Fort Wayne to Indianapolis for the St. Joe-Butler game. Vernon Casper and Art Voll also showed loyalty when they hitch-hiked from Louisville to Indianapolis for the same game.
